

Draftsman (Structural)

Resus Energy PLC is an award-winning public company listed in the Colombo Stocks Exchange. We are amongst the largest renewable energy producers in Sri Lanka.

Our vision is to build a commercially sustainable and an energetic world-class organization that "cares for people and planet" in meeting energy needs of the people.

We are on the lookout for a young, enthusiastic individual who is keen build up a career in structural designing in Power and Energy Projects

He/ She is expected to mainly engage in:

- Preparing detailed drawings of structural components and systems
- Ensuring all drawings comply with applicable codes and regulations
- Reviewing and revisiting drawings based on feedback from project managers
- Performing site visits to gather data and verify measurements
- Updating project documentation as changes are made
- Providing assistance in the preparation of project estimates and schedules
- Proper document management and filing of all blueprints and plans

Candidate Profile

- Minimum of NVQ level 4 qualification in Civil Engineering or Drafting Technology
- Fully completed Certification in CAD software
- Minimum 2 years previous experience in a structural drafting role
- Familiarity with construction management software
- Good spatial awareness and an eye for detail
- Familiarity with Office 365 applications
- Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines
- Self-motivating personality who is eager conquer challenges

If you find this opportunity attractive and matching your profile, please send your CV with the details of two non-related referees quoting the position applying for on the subject of the email within 7 days to

careers@resusenergy.lk